CONDITION OF THE BLACKS IN THE COTTON GROWING STATES.

OFFICIAL REPORT OF MAJOR GEN. GILLEM.

BUREAU R. F., AND A. LANDS,
OFFICE ASSIS'T COMM'R OF MISSISSIPPI,
VICKSBURG, Dec. 10, 1867.

Major General E. O. C. Ord, Commanding Fourth Military District:

General—I feel it incumbent upon me as Assistant Commissioner Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands for this State to represent to you the present condition of the freedmen and planters, and their prospects for the future.

At the close of the war cotton, heretofore the great staple of the South, commanded what was regarded as an enormous price, say from forty to sixty cents per pound, the result of which was to cause a large amount of capital from the North to be invested in the production of cotton. Labor, of course, commanded a price comparatively beyond what had hitherto been known in the planting and farming districts, ranging from $15 to $20 per month, with rations, for first-class field hands.

The short crop of 1866 dispelled the illusion entertained by many capitalists of rapidly accumulating a fortune, and in many cases utterly ruined planters and adventurers, who had invested their all in a single crop. Yet there was a sufficient number who regarded their losses as the result of an exceptional season, added to the number of landholders who determined to risk the result of another year's planting, to maintain the high rate of wages of the previous year, and the contracts, where wages were the consideration, ranged from $15 to $20 per month; and where the land was tilled on shares the planter agreed to furnish the land, animals, utensils and, in many cases the forage, the freedmen furnishing the labor. In most of these cases, the laborer having no subsistence and no credit, the planters agreed to become responsible for the supplies necessary for the laborer and his family, the amount to be deducted from the share of the laborer when the crops were gathered.

In consequence of the dry weather and worms, the crop of 1867 has not exceeded half of what was regarded as an average crop, and that has not commanded but one-half of the price of the previous year, thus reducing the proceeds to one fourth of what was anticipated by the planter and freedman as the proceeds of the year's labor.—The result is the financial ruin of the planter and capitalist and discontent of the laborer.

In cases where laborers worked for stated wages there is but little complaint or discontent on the part of the freedmen, remuneration having generally been received by the laborer either in money or supplies; or if not paid the claim can be easily established or adjudicated, and if the planter has the means the claim can be collected. Where the laborer has worked for a share of the crop, endless litigation has been the consequence. The laborer, being without means, has generally been furnished the necessary supplies by the planter or on his security. On gathering the crop it has in a majority of cases been ascertained that the share of the laborer does not pay his indebtedness for supplies advanced, and instead of receiving a dividend he is in debt. This causes great discontent and a conviction, perhaps, well founded in some instances, of dishonesty and false accounts on the part of planters, but this cannot generally be the case.

Instances have occurred where the planters have entirely abandoned the crop to the laborers, losing their time, the use of their animals and implements and the supplies advanced. Cases have been brought to my attention of planting where not only the entire crop has been turned over to the laborers to satisfy their claims, but also the mules and implements used in its production. The result of this condition of affairs is the almost universal determination of planters to abandon the culture of cotton, and even if they wished to prosecute it another year, it would, I apprehend, be impossible for them to procure further advance of the necessary supplies from any merchant, so prevalent is the conviction that cotton cannot be produced at the present prices.

The next year the land in cultivation will be almost entirely devoted to corn, which requires but about one fifth of the labor demanded by cotton; therefore, four fifths of the laborers required last year will be thrown out of employment, and, of course, there will be a corresponding decrease of wages. This the freedmen do not appreciate, considering it the result of a combination to defraud them of what they could der just wages. The consequence is they almost universally decline entering into contracts for the year 1868 on the terms offered by planters.

The crop of 1867 having been gathered, the freedmen are now idle and without, in a great majority of instances, the means of support. The result is, great complaints from every section of the State of depredations being committed on live stock, hogs, sheep and cattle. This is now the condition of affairs in the State of Mississippi.

Planters are without means, having little left them except their lands. Capitalists beyond the limits of the State refuse to make advances from the unsettled condition of affairs. The freedmen being to a great extent discontented, refuse to enter into contracts for the coming year. The remedy to be applied demands most thorough and immediate consideration; for the military, either through the commanders of troops or agents of the Bureau, to reach all sections of the State, to see that all persons able to earn their support are compelled to do so, and that all those who do labor receive compensation for the same, is simply impossible. The care of the poor and the duty of seeing that contracts are faithfully executed properly devolves upon the local magistrates and higher courts.

How far it is safe, under the peculiar condition of affairs existing in this State, to trust the civil authorities with this duty, it is for you, to whom the act creating this District intrusts "the security of life and property," to judge. To empower the local magistrates to arrest as vagrants all persons without visible means of support would, no doubt, lead to acts of injustice; but the civil authorities, being recognized and intrusted with the execution of the civil law, collection of taxes and the care of the poor, it would seem to be a necessary consequence that, as a protection to the community, they should have authority to compel all who are able to support themselves, and thus prevent them from becoming a burden upon the community. To deny the civil authorities the exercise of this right is to place the freedmen above the recognized government of the State.

It is a matter of very grave doubt whether, in the present condition of affairs, the civil authorities, unaided by the military, will be able to maintain order and execute the law. Civil process can only be served in the ordinary manner where the offenders are the exception and the law is sustained by public opinion; but in the present ruined condition of labor in this State thousands are without labor and must subsist; consequently, depredation is the rule and honesty the exception, while, on the other hand, to treat as vagrants four-fifths of the community is simply impracticable.

But these are matters for your consideration and of the law making power rather than for me, whose functions are entirely executive, and to you I submit the case merely with the surmise that it will be impossible to inaugurate any system for the relief of the blacks which is unanimously approved by the whites.

There is another subject worthy of attention in this connection. There seems to be a wide-spread belief, which is daily increasing among the freedmen, that the land in this State is to be divided and distributed among them, and in some sections of the State this illusion is assuming a practical form by the freedmen refusing to contract for the next year, or to leave the premises they have cultivated this year.

It is to be feared that this course, induced by evil disposed advisers, may lead to collisions, the extent and result of which it is difficult to surmise.

I receive almost daily petitions and memorials asserting the existence of organized companies of freedmen, and asking the presence and protection of troops, and although I am satisfied that these representations are generally the result of fear and exaggerated rumors, yet the existence of such organizations in some sections of the State is certain. Commanders of troops and agents of the Bureau have been instructed to urge upon the freedmen the absolute necessity of abstaining from armed demonstrations; that they will be protected in all their rights, but that they must not seek redress by force or violence.

In order to avoid as far as possible bringing the races in collision with each other, I have advised that whenever practicable the "posse" summoned to assist in an arrest shall be of the same race as the person arrested.

I am, General, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ALVIN C. GILLEM,
Brevet Major General, Commissioner.

RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA.
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Wilmsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "Via Petersburg."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1867.

WHAT IS BEST FOR OUR PEOPLE!

We admit to our columns, from a respectable source, an article on "the situation," signed "Cato," which we do not endorse, but which seems to have been carefully pondered, and which deserves consideration.

The writer does not favor our views upon bankruptcy as a remedy for the prostrate condition of our people, and although he disclaims being a repudiationist, yet he evidently considers that repudiation is now the only remedy which will suit our people.

We intimated, in our article upon the bankrupt law, that the Radicals had promised repudiation, in some instances, to persons, in order to secure their votes, when every one must see that a Constitution, containing the principle of repudiation, would not be worth the paper upon which it is written. Yet, to make the Constitution popular among the masses, we should not be surprised if some such fub were thrown to the whale.

The views of "Cato" are based upon the actual state of things existing since the war, in which he holds that the Southern States have been governed without the Constitution and simply by the caprice or will of Congress. The people of these States or provinces, being without Constitution or law and not answerable to the Constitution of the United Sates, and being governed by the will of Congress, as "Cato" seems to suppose, therefore, if, in the reconstruction Constitution, repudiation were included, and Congress were to accept it, it would be the duty of the people to acquiesce in the arrangement thereafter! We do not see the force or legitimacy of his reasoning, nor does his view promise any settlement of our difficulties.

The most ready and humane, and the cheapest, method of settling the indebtedness of the people, is by general and mutual compromise among debtors and creditors. This plan we have urged several times since the war, but we have seen no disposition on the part of debtors or creditors to move in the matter. In 1865, this ought to have been done. Creditors and debtors should have met and settled their matters among themselves, on principles of justice and humanity. That scheme failing, we have seen no way of escape, until the passage of the bankrupt law. The stay law, passed during the war, was not only unconstitutional, but operated almost as ruinously upon the people as the war itself. But for that law, the people generally might have cleared themselves of debt. The stay laws since the war have been of the same character, simply putting off the evil day, increasing the indebtedness of the people, by the accumulation of interest, compelling hundreds to pay large taxes, both State and Federal, upon fictitious property and incomes, and vastly increasing the cost of litigation.

But the whole fabric upon which "Cato's" argument is built is a false one. We hold that there has not been a moment, since the inauguration of the late war, when the Southern States and people were not legally bound by the Constitution of the United States. The attempt to throw off our allegiance to the Constitution of the United States was purely revolutionary—until we effected the objects of that revolution, we were still amenable to that Consatitution, although the war suspended its operation; but the failure of the revolution removed the suspension, and at once we were subjected to all the penalties of revolution, but, at the same time, were restored to all the rights and privileges of the Constitution.—We hold, therefore, that, since the war, we have not only been living under the Constitution of the United States, but have been entitled to all its protection and benefits. If we have not received these benefits and protection, it is because the powers of the government have been usurped by Congress and the party in power, who are not disposed to give us our rights under the Constitution. The action of the Southern States, in carrying on the war, was revolutionary, but all the acts of the States and people were not revolutionary. Many of those acts were strictly in accordance with the requirements and principles of the Constitution of the United States. Hence, when the revolution failed or the "rebellion" was quelched, all the revolutionary laws of the South became null and void, but those laws which were not contrary to the Constitution of the United States, and not revolutionary, remained in full force. The same state of things continues since the war, owing to the fact that the active power of the government has been wielded by the Congress to effect another revolution, equally as repugnant to the Constitution as secession was. If the present revolution should be successful, then, in that case, the present Constitution and government will be displaced by a new one, and all that has passed will be made to comform to the new. In that case, if we repudiate and the new government should give it its sanction, then of course it would stand. But if it should not approve, then it would be null. But suppose the present Radical revolution should not prevail? Suppose, as every Conservative hopes, that it will be checked in 1868, and the Constitution and laws of the United States should triumph? Suppose law and order will once more prevail, as they have done, and the old government should be again settled down upon its old foundations, hating the existence of slavery, does not every one see, that whatever has been done in the past, in regard to real property, violative of the principles of the United States Constitution, will be ripped up and cannot stand the rigid scrutiny of the Courts?

But neither a legitimate compromise of debtor and creditor, nor the bankrupt act, are contrary to the Constitution, and therefore not liable to be unsettled, when once settled. But suppose we go into repudiation of any kind or degree, and effect settlements under State Constitutions or laws not recognized by the Constitution of the United States, and how long can they stand? Any encouragement, therefore, which may be offered by the Radicals to relieve the people by repudiation, can only have this twofold influence: first, to ally the people to their interests for the sake of a temporary good, or secondly, to bind them to their interests in order to preserve what they have gained by it, only to bring upon them and their children utter ruin and degradation forever!

THE STATE OF AFFAIRS IN MISSISSIPPI—THE CAUSES.

It was mentioned, in our telegraphic dispatches on Wednesday morning, that Gen. Ord had dispatched General Gillem, Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau for the State of Mississippi, to Washington, to represent to the President and Secretary of War the starving condition of the Freedmen in a large number of the counties of his sub-district. We publish, on our first page, to day, the report of Gen. Gillem, made to Gen. Ord, upon which this action was predicated, and we subjoin the following important order, issued by the District Commander on the 19th. inst:

"Commanding officers are directed to notify the leading colored men, and to take such other measures as may be necessary to give general publication of the fact, that all freedmen, who are able, will be required to earn their support during the coming year, and to go to work upon the best terms that can be procured, even should it furnish a support only, and thus prevent them becoming a burden on the Government. All freedmen who can, but will not, earn a livelihood when employment can be procured, will lay themselves liable to arrest and punishment as vagrants. The co-operation of sheriffs and constables, and police magistrates, is requested to the enforcement of this order, and any such action of theirs, under its provisions, will be sustained by the military authorities."

Judging from all the indications before us, it may not be long before some similar action becomes necessary in North Carolina. The immense losses that have been sustained by those of our planters, who went largely into the culture of cotton, the past year, together with the financial stringency resulting from other causes, will effectually preclude any extended or speculative operations, in any department of farming, the present year. The result will and must be, that thousands of laborers will seek employment, in vain, at anything like the wages which have heretofore obtained. We feel confident that many of them will come to consider themselves fortunate, ere long, if they can secure situations for their clothing and food. The number of idlers and loungers is very visibly increasing, each day, in every section of the State, and this fact accounts, in a great measure, for the accumulation of crime which has marked the closing weeks of the year just drawing to an end.

While this state of things has its origin in the depreciation of prices, the partial failure of the crops, and the monetary pressure,—the first and last the legitimate results of Radical legislation,—the condition is greatly aggravated by the teachings which have been instilled into the minds of the negroes by Radical emissaries, demagogues and incendiaries. Under these teachings, they have, in many cases, come to regard work (in the fields, especially,) as inconsistent with the idea of freedom. They look upon the ballot as something better than bread,—voting as more necessary than victuals,—and Constitutions as something that concerns their new dignity more closely than clothes. Most of them will forfeit a day's wages, at any time, to straggle off and listen to the empty vaporings of some ignorant preteader or designing demagogue, who proposes to "address" them on the great and glorious topic of "Liberty and Equality." The worst of it is, too, that, at the very time when a stern necessity is about to demonstrate, what every sensible man of their race ought to have foreseen, and what they have all been repeatedly admonished was the case, that their real and only dependence is upon the Southern whites, among whom they live and have been raised, their minds are being poisoned against and filled with hatred towards their former owners.

Radicalism has been a terrible curse to the country,—but to the negro a worse enemy still. The country can recover from its blighting effects, and throw off, as it surely will, the incubus of its rule; but the negro is doomed, we fear, to be the unhappy victim of that easy credulity which led him to trust in such a false and treacherous firend!

NORTHERN SETTLERS.

Soon after the war, a number of persons of Northern birth, either connected with the army or following on its heels, determined to settle in the South, at different points, engaging in merchandise, cotton planting, &c., expecting to make a good thing of it. In the meantime, some of them became, also, deeply interested in the political situation of the South, and foremost in the management of the political machinery of the party in power, and, in many instances they, with Agents of the Bureau, have been elected to the various Conventions of the Southern States. A good share of this class of men manipulated the wires in the Alabama Convention, and are doing the same thing in Georgia and Louisiana. This accounts, in a great measure, for the violence and illiberality exhibited.

In this State, the number of Northern adventurers elected to the Convention is comparatively small, but the indications are that some of these gentlemen, and their friends, are looking for promotion. But North Carolina is becoming too poor for adventurers. We learn that many of them are making arrangements to leave. We have been satisfied that if Radical reconstruction does not pay, but few of those, who profess interest in the State, will remain.

For the Sentinel.

THE SITUATION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I see, from the Sentinel of the 13th. inst., that you call upon the people to endeavor to devise some way or means, by which they may be relieved from their present embarrassed condition. Permit me to make a few suggestions. You say that the Convention cannot repudiate. I understand that clause of the Constitution of the United States, prohibiting States from impairing contracts, to apply only to sovereign States of the Union.—Are we one of the sovereign States? Have we any rights at all, that Congress may think proper to divest us of? If Congress has the power to deprive us of one of our State rights, it has the power to deprive us of the whole. Is there any act of the State of North Carolina, either by Convention or State legislation, constitutional?—Was the late Convention called in accordance with the Constitution of the State? Was any act of the Legislature constituted by the Convention, constitutional? Does not the Reconstruction Act virtually declare us out of the Union? Does not that dictate the terms upon which we may go back into the Union? Has the Supreme Court cognizance of any act done previous to our being admitted into the Union? Would it not be an ex post facto act for them to assume any such jurisdiction?

But suppose we are in the Union. Congress has assumed the responsibility to rip up the whole of our State government, and dictate upon what terms we shall be permitted to remain in the Union as a sovereign State. It has unquestionably deprived us of our sovereignty. If it has that right, it has the right to receive any such Constitution, as may be adopted by the State, and guarantee to us all its provisions.—Suppose the Convention engrafts a clause in the Constitution, that no land shall be sold in this State under execution, without the consent of the owner, for any debt contracted previous to, or during the war; that no execution shall issue from any of our courts, short of ten years, for any debt contracted previous to, or during the war; that no note given for the purchase of slaves shall be collected through the medium of any of our courts. Notes given for the purchase of slaves, were given for consideration.—The laws of the country guaranteed the title to the purchaser. The consideration for which the notes were given, has been by the laws of the country destroyed. Is it not a settled principle of law, that a note given without consideration is null and void of itself? Suppose Congress receives the Constitution under those considerations, would not the Supreme Court be bound to decide accordingly? If it did not, it appears to me, that it could not sustain any act done either in Convention or by the Legislature of our State since the war. Will the Conservative men of this State pursue a similar course to that pursued by Virginia, South Carolina and Georgia—not meddle with the Reconstruction Acts?

Let the Radicals pursue their own course, and let us meet the issue at a proper time. If the Constitution is adopted, we shall be received into the Union. Would it not be better to let things go by default, and bear the ills we have for a time, than to attempt to give ourselves temporary relief, and destroy our future prospect? The whole thing will unquestionably be ripped up after 4th. March 1869, that they may adopt. Suppose we are not admitted into the Union. We shall have no voice whatever in the great struggle that comes on in 1868 for the Presidency; but if North Carolina and Virginia are admitted into the Union under any constitutions that they may adopt, they can give about thirty Electoral votes to aid our Northern friends in carrying out their noble purpose. They are coming to our rescue; is it not our duty to show to them, that we will do all we can within our power to restore us to the Union; that we are anxious to become members of the Union, and would glory in being admitted once more under its flag; that we are willing to suffer Radical rule for the present to effect that purpose? North Carolina and Virginia are the only Southern States that can do anything.—They are not entirely under the control of negroes. North Carolina, with a majority of thirty thousand whites, if properly organized, can with ease carry the State in 1868. They, together with the States that have already spoken, will secure to us a Democratic President. Would it not be well for the Central Committee to appoint sub-Committees in each District of every county, to lay the matter fairly before the people? If the Conservative men of this State do not come up and manfully battle for the relief of the oppressed debtors, and the Radicals from their acts show a disposition to relieve the people, they will carry the State in 1868. I believe a large majority of the white people of this State would sooner submit to military rule for a term of years, than to see so many thousands of our best citizens deprived of a house and home, and themselves and their families thrown upon the world in a perfectly destitute condition. A large majority of those brave soldiers that fought the battles of our country would be left in this condition.

It, therefore, behooves the Conservative party, and it is their duty, to urge such measures, as would save the people from utter ruin. Let the able jurists and statesmen composing the Central Committee bring their minds to bear, to save the people. Would it not be advisable to call upon Gen. Canby to continue the stay of executions, until something can be done by the proper authorities? Would it not be advisable, to petition Congress to extend the time for the collection of our land tax, until we can get a Legislature to assume the amount due from the State to the general government? Our farmers have failed in their crops, and the reduced price of cotton, together with the high price paid for labor, have left them in a deplorable condition. But very few of them will be able to pay the expenses of making their crops, and, in most cases, they will be brought largely in debt. If the Supreme Court should decide the acts of the Convention, in regard to debtors, unconstitutional, it would at least clog the law, and stay executions for two or three years. Do not understand me as being an ultra repudiationist. I only wish to stay the law, so as to force compromises, and prevent those selfish "Shylocks" from devouring the people, a large majority of whom did little or nothing during the war, but hoarded up their bonds, with the interest preying upon the very vitals of our soldiers, who were fighting the battles of our country, enduring as much or more than any people ever did before, endeavoring to secure the property of those craven creatures. What ungrateful wretches! They are now trying to take from those patriotic men their last dime, and leave them entirely destitute of the means of support.

Nothing but the strong arm of the law can prevent them from satiating their avarice.

CATO.

RUMORED REMOVAL OF GEN. POPE.—It is currently rumored to-day that the President has decided to remove General Pope from the command of the Third Military District, embracing the States of Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, and to appoint Gen. Meade in his place.—Wash. Evening Express, 24th.

THE BRIGS Gondola and J. A. Cook are loading at Richmond, Va., with flour for Rio Janeiro.

STATE NEWS.

——The Goldsboro News chronicles the following attempt at robbery in Wayne:

"We learn, that one day last week, a negro entered a store at or near Nahunta, in this county, examined several articles, and finding no one present but a small boy, who was acting as clerk, selected some articles and remarked that "we colored folks have got to have these things, and I'm going to take these." And starting off with them, the boy seized a gun that was convenient and drawing a bead on the negro commanded him to put them down or he would shoot. The negro not liking the looks of the gun and the determination of the clerk, dropped the goods and made his escape. Many such attempts will no doubt be made during the winter, and we advise every man to have the means of protection within his reach."

——Three robberies were committed, last week, in the town of Fayetteville.

——Under the auspices of the Benevolent Society of Wilmington, the poor of that city were provided with dinner on Christmas day. Large amounts of provisions were contributed by the citizens, and the butchers and bakers were especially generous in their donations.

——A Thespian Association has been formed by the young gentlemen of Newbern.

——The Wilmington Journal says that the pea-nut crop in that section is estimated to be about 100,000 bushels the present year.

——The Wilmington Journal gives the following sketch of Artis, the negro, who has been arrested for complicity in the murder of Col. Nethercutt, and who has confessed his guilt:

"Patrick Artis, one of the arrested murderers of Col. Nethercutt, is a negro who has participated in all manner of lawlessness, and whose course of crime will no doubt soon have a fatal yet merited termination. Many of our readers are probably aware of the fact that he is an escaped felon from our county workhouse, to which he was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment at the October term of our Criminal Court, for the offence of larceny. His capture after the commission of this crime, for which he was imprisoned, was not attended without serious difficulty. The workhouse was not strong enough to hold him, and he made his escape from there on the 24th of October, and was at large until his arrest a few days since for complicity in the murder of Col. Nethercutt.

This man Artis was born in Stantonburg, N. C., and is about twenty-two years of age. He has lived in Wilmington for a considerable period since the war, and is a carriage maker by trade. He is about five feet one inch high, dark, muddy complected, with black eyes, and has a scar on his right leg from a cut by an axe. His course in crime has been onward and rapid. We trust that those negroes who have fallen into a state of lawlessness and disregard of law, will take warning by the fate which no doubt awaits Artist and reform their ways and habits while it is time."

——The Salisbury Banner says that two Yankees have recently canvassed Union County, vending a preparation, or whitewash, to the negroes, which, they assured them, after using for six months, would make their skins white.

THE GEORGIA CONVENTION AND THEIR PAY—A STORMY SESSION, &c.

ATLANTA, GA., December 23.—The Convention met this morning, and immediately took a recess until 3 P. M., to give an opportunity to negotiate a loan to pay the expenses of the body. The afternoon session was exceedingly stormy. The Finance Committee failed to secure a loan, and reported an ordinance to authorize further effort, which was defeated on the ground that nothing could be done. The report of the commissioner sent to Milledgeville to draw $40,000 from the State Treasurer was received. It says that he showed the State Treasurer the ordinance of the Convention, with General Pope's authorization and direction endorsed, and that the Treasurer said he must decline paying out any money on such authority, being sworn to obey the constitution and laws of Georgia, and was bonded only to pay warrants signed by the Governor.

During the debate that ensued a delegate said the Treasurer had snubbed the Convention. Another said he would to God the Convention could snub General Pope. The negro Bradley said the sergeant-at-arms should be sent with a file of soldiers to bring that impudent treasurer to the bar of the Convention. Another negro said: "What did they bring us here for?" Great confusion accompanied the adjournment, which is over to the 8th of January next. Extreme indignation is expressed by the delegates, a majority of whom have not money enough to take them home. Hotels, boarding-houses, the Convention printer, and officials suffer severely.

WAGES DECLINING.—As an indication of the decline in the price of labor, we give the following item of information: "The Superintendents and Presidents of our various railroads, who, last year, paid for laborers $16 per month with rations, have determined not to pay over $8 to $10 per month with rations, for the next year.—These laborers, it will be remembered, are charged for all lost time, even fractions of a day."—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.

ARMY OFFICERS are generally distinguished for courtesy. We regret to hear that at Watt's Opera House, last evening, a Major General gruffly declined to heed a courteously worded request for permission to get by him in order to join a lady, and brought on himself deserved censure therefor.—Wash. Evening Express, 24th.

According to the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, General Grant cannot even spell correctly. West Point will weep when it learns this fact.

A Kentuckian shot at his brother because he wouldn't indorse for him. Although he missed his aim, his kind intention was not frustrated, for his brother fell dead of heart disease at that instant.

John Brown's son has been taken to an Ohio lunatic asylum, afflicted with the hereditary taint.

Dr. Hayes thinks that one of his icebergs would suffice to pay the national debt, if sold by the pound. Even a cooler plan than Butler's.

Two Memphis gentlemen settled a little dispute in the streets the other day with their pistols. It all passed off pleasantly.

Family affection at Chicago is evidenced in the conduct of a young man who nearly broke his mother's neck, beat his father, and bit off his brother's nose.

Ten deaths to one birth is the ratio among the negroes on the Florida islands.

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE SOUTH.

Although some of our cotemporaries seem to find gleams of sunshine in the condition of the South, we confess that no such desirable signs are presented to our view. It is true that fine conservative demonstrations have just occurred in Richmond, in Macon, Ga., in Mobile, in Little Rock, Ark., and elsewhere. Conservative clubs are in process of organization in the Carolinas, as well as in some of the other unreconstructed States. It is stated that Florida has chosen an anti-radical majority to her constitutional convention. Gen. Hancock, the military commander in New Orleans has also thrown a new and more congenial feeling into the administration of affairs in Louisiana. But no one whose eyes are open can fail to observe indications of a determination on the part of Congress to enforce its extreme doctrines of Southern reconstruction. This is bad enough, if no other unpleasant cloud obscured the view to happier days for the South. Yet we find that the Alabama Convention has adjourned and presented a constitution for the suffrages of the people of that unreconstructed State—or those who are favored with the elective franchise—containing provisions abhorrent to every respectable and responsible white man living within its borders. We also know that black supremacy conventions are now in session in Georgia and Louisiana, that others will shortly assemble in Mississippi and Arkansas, and that so far from expecting reason and toleration from those bodies the reverse can only be expected. Moreover, we have accounts of unspeakable distress among both whites and blacks throughout the once fertile Southern domains. These accounts are accompanied by others which exhibit the lamentable lengths to which Northern radicalism has progressed in prostrating commerce, destroying agriculture, sundering familiy ties, uprooting civil law and in seducing the ignorant blacks into the belief that no more labor is due from them, that they have worked long enough and that the inheritance of the whites, once their masters, becomes now their own. The fact that conspiracies exist to carry out their ideas is no longer doubted. Names, places and dates to that effect are in the hands of the authorities, and that great mischief is meditated cannot be doubted. In view of these developments, occurring every day, we say we confess we cannot discern the gleams of sunshine through the black Southern clouds which some of our cotemporaries, with all the keenness of their optics, allege they have discovered. But let the Southern whites who are now under the heel of radicalism be firm, let them keep up their courage, let them be patient and await the hour of their complete redemption, which every sign portends will occur within a twelvemonth.—N. Y. Herald.

THE NEW SENATOR FROM CALIFORNIA.—The telegraph brings us the intelligence of the election of the Hon. Eugene Casserly as the successor of Mr. Conness in the Senate after the 4th of March, 1869. We are gratified that the somewhat protracted deliberations of the Conservatives have resulted in the choice of one whom even the New York Tribune is compelled to recognize as possessing considerable ability and irreproachable character. Mr. Casserly is a man of middle age, a native of New York. He emigrated to California a few years ago, where he has closely applied himself to the law. His abilities and force of character have raised him to a prominent position at the bar, and these, with his steadfast adherence to Conservative principles, will combine to make him influential and respected in his new career.—*Nat. DIED:

At his residence in Nash county, N. C., on the 28th ult., ARTHUR ARRINGTON, aged 77 years. In his death, this community has lost a kind and benevolent neighbor, his immediate family an affectionate father, and his numerous relatives and acquaintances one, whom they greatly loved.—His ear was ever ready to listen to the distressed; and his hand open to assist the poor and needy. His sunshine and generous manner prompted him ever to meet, with extended hands, the visitor at his threshold. Though not a member of the Church, yet he strove, through a long life, "to do unto others, as he would they should do to him." The minister of the Gospel found a welcome home within his doors. And with delight he listened to their Godly conversation. M.

Kinchy Ann Edwards, who had escaped from the Work-House, was arrested in the City and turned over to the Superintendent of the Wake County Work-House.

Thomas Harrison, colored, arrested for intoxication and disorderly conduct on market square, was lodged in the guard-house and released on payment of a fine of $2.

Frances Kearsey, colored, arrested for violating the rules of decency in Capitol Square, was lodged in the guard-house, for further investigation.

David Blount, colored, arrested for disorderly conduct and intoxication on the street, was lodged in the guard house.

CHRISTMAS.—The day passed off pleasantly, and the fine weather brought out throngs of persons into the streets, on enjoyment bent. The young people, especially, seemed to have a merry time of it, and, notwithstanding the hardness of the times, Santa Claus, judging by what we saw, was as liberal as usual in his largess.

The D. Q. I's, were out in the morning, presenting a grotesque and ludicrous appearance, and attracted a large crowd of juvenile followers.

Services were held, in the morning, at Christ Church (Episcopal,) and an interesting sermon preached by the Rector, Dr. Mason. In accordance with the appropriate custom which prevails in the Church of England, the Church was handsomely and tastefully decorated with evergreens. The music on the occasion was excellent,—particularly the chanting of the beautiful hymn, "Hark! the herald angels sing!"

RALEIGH THESPIAN ASSOCIATION.—This corps gave their third representation, at Tucker Hall, last evening, to a good audience. The beautiful drama of "Grandfather Whitehead" and the laughable farce of "That Blessed Baby" were produced with great success. All of the members of the Association acquitted themselves handsomely, displaying the same capital appreciation of character which we have heretofore noticed. It is seldom, indeed, that renditions of so much excellence, amateur or professional, have been witnessed in this City.

It is the purpose of the Thespians, we learn, to give a series of entertainments, next week, embodying change and variety. We trust that they may be the means of raising a charitable fund, which will be of great benefit to the suffering poor of Raleigh.

BEVERLY THORNTON, Daniel Brown, Wm. Webster and Mayor Grayson, four colored mechanics, have recently left the "Loyal League" in Warrenton, Va, and will vote the Conservative ticket.

REV. DR. L. M. LEE, of the Methodist Church, of Virginia, has been invited to the Presidency of Emory College, in Georgia.

THE JAPANESE.—The entertainment, by the Mikado Japanese Troupe, takes place, it will be remembered, at Tucker Hall, to-night. The exhibitions have been received with great delight in Wilmington. Speaking of their second appearance in that city, the Star says:

"The Japanese performed again last night to a crowded house, composed of a select discriminating audience of our best citizens. Instead of falling off, as those of most performances do, their audiences have an increasing tendency. The Japs do things that, but for the evidence of our eyes, we would have believed impossible. There is an astonishing slack rope performer in the troupe. They spin tops as they do their yarns, at great lengths; and spin a top a'top of a piece of yarn, and on the edge of a sword. One enterprising individual, for the love of fame, walks up a ladder, the rounds of which are sharp-edged swords, and reaches the top without cutting his feet.—None of our readers should fail to attend the theatre while the troupe remains. There is a young lady who does a very difficult piece of climbing, with a national Japanese waterfall on her head. Nothing to equal them has even been seen in Wilmington, and we commend them they commend themselves, to the people of our city."

Correspondence of the Richmond Whig

CENTRAL MISSISSIPPI.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM "SENEX"—THE TERRIBLE CONDITION OF AFFAIRS—DANGEROUS ORGANIZATIONS AND PLANS OF THE NEGROES—IDLENESS, HUNGER AND CRIME—GENERAL ORD—SUGGESTIONS AND PLANS OF RELIEF, &C

HINDS COUNTY (MISS.)
December 16, 1867.

Since my letter which appeared in the tri-weekly Whig of the 3rd of December, matters have been in steady progress here for developing the full consequences of Yankee policy. The negroes, dissatisfied with the results of their year's idleness, had resolved, generally, to farm on their own account in 1868, and for this purpose they conspired extensively to seize as much land as each should think that he wanted. They afterwards considered three hundred dollars is necessary to purchase a mule, plough, &c., and supplies for the year. And not one in twenty could command fifty dollars; many had not one dollar. As they refused to do any work after the crops were gathered, their employers refused to lend them, and the little money which some of them had has been expended to support them in idleness. Groups of strong young negroes are seen on the streets of our villages chaffering for small jobs.—How they live would be a mystery, if the rapid disappearance of hogs and other stock did not furnish an explanation. It is believed that nine tenths of the hogs will be destroyed before the winter ends.

Another conspiracy, more formidable in its purposes and power, has recently been betrayed. The more daring members of the "Loyal League" have organized for systematic plunder, and, it may be, for murder. They are to obey their leader, whatever he orders; and they are to rendezvous on his call and march from one plantation to another, taking what they want, and killing if resisted. The peaceable and timid are trying to get employment again under the planters. But two years of free negro labor have exhausted the resources and credit of the planters and the merchants who advanced for them. Fully three fourths of them will be unemployed, because the planters are unable to support them. Good managers formerly made from six to ten bales of cotton per hand in this (Hinds) county. The present year's crop, with a fair season and select hands, has been from one to three! It does not pay the wages of the laborers.

General Ord has left matters in the hands of Gov. Humphreys, and gone to Washington to consult the Secretary. I learn that his plan is, that the negroes be led by the Government and set to work on the levees. This may be the best that can be devised for the emergency. But another has been suggested, viz: that they be carried, at the expense of the Government, to Illinois, &c., where they can get good wages. Numbers are going to the Mississippi river, and, being generally armed, we may expect to hear of mischief on a great scale. But the women and children are generally left behind to burden the country. It is a curious feature of negro freedom that most of the women were to "play lady" at home, expecting their husbands to support them.

The progress of extermination is manifest. Very few children are seen. They die in infancy from neglect. Among the adults, too, the mortality far exceeds that of the days of slavery. The sick almost always refuse to employ physicians, and they are totally neglected by the others.

We are to have a Convention shortly when the scenes of Montgomery will probably be repeated. But I think that in this State, and in most of the others, the negro Constitutions will be rejected by the popular vote.

THE APPROACHING TRIAL OF EX-SECRETARY STANTON FOR ALLEGED FALSE IMPRISONMENT.—The case of Smithson against Stanton, on a charge of false imprisonment, if it can be brought to the test of an argument, promises to solve many of the doubts which surround the question as to the extent to which an official of the government has the power to seize the persons and property of individuals without due process of law.—Hughes, Denver & Peck, of this city, having the case in hand, in March last made a motion in the District Court to require the defendant to furnish the originals of certain letters, papers and proceedings of court martial. Mr. Stanton, notwithstanding, it is said, the readiness of his attorney to comply, has thus far obstinately refused this request to allow the originals to be seen, though copies are freely offered. The attorneys for the plaintiff, however, are not willing to receive these, as they will wish to discover the authenticity, particularly, of the treasonable letters alleged to have been written by Smithson, under the assumed name of Caldes. These letters, as they appear in the plea of the defendant, contain information respecting the numbers and movements of the garrison of Washington in the first year of the rebellion. Upon this ground Smithson was arrested and confined in Fort Fayette. After some time he was released, and soon after was again arrested and tried by a military court, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at Albany, New York. After a brief confinement he was again set at liberty by a pardon from the President. During these occurrences it is said that a government detective, upon an alleged authority from the Secretary of War, turned the wife and children of Smithson out of their house, which was occupied by officers of the government. The case has thus far been postponed out of courtesy to the opposite counsel, but the attorneys for the plaintiff have now determined to press their motion for Oyer and Inspection, and, upon receiving an order of the court to that effect, will proceed at once either upon the merits of the case, or, in event of a continued refusal, without giving sufficient legal reasons to produce the desired original letters, will move to set aside the justification set up by the defence, and for an order for contempt of court against Mr. Stanton.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assetts than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has declared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen yea. her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the assured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to P. F. PESCUD, Agt.,

LIFE INSURANCE.

(From the Insurance Monitor and Wall Street Review, New York.)

A Well-deserved Success—The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost immemorial landmark, "Old Guerin's," the less ancient "Standinger's," and the present office-building of the Adams Express Company, on the Southeast corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with three adjoining buildings on the latter street, is attributable to that modern insurance giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 85 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and thirty-one feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in perfecting plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but so arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment. The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justify this solid investment, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although this Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an insurance amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum assured by it up to the present date approaches 100 000,000; its accumulations have run up to 5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless surpass to five millions dollars.

For this rapid increase and substantial success there are abundant and most satisf

AFFECTIONATELY INSCRIBED TO REV. H. V. BROWN, OF CHATTANOOGA.

BY MOINA.

Weary Hearts! weary hearts! by the cares of life oppressed,
Ye are wandering in the shadows,—ye are sighing for a rest;
There is darkness in the heavens,—and the earth is bleak below,
And the joys ye taste to-day may to-morrow turn to woe.
Weary Hearts! God is Rest.

Lonely Hearts! lonely hearts! this is but a land of grief;
Ye are pining for repose,—ye are longing for relief;
What the world hath never given—Kneel, and ask of God above,
And your grief shall turn to gladness,—if you lean upon His love.
Lonely Hearts! God is Love.

Restless Hearts! restless hearts! ye are toiling night and day,
And the flowers of life, all withered, leave but thorns along your way;
Ye are waiting,—ye are waiting till your toilings all shall cease,
And your o'er-y restless beating lean sad—sad, rayless forgrave.
Restless Hearts! God is Peace.

Breaking Hearts! broken hearts! ye are desolate and lone,
And low voices from the Past o'er your present ruins moan!
In the sweetest of your pleasures there was bitterest alloy—
And a starless night hath followed on the sunset of your joy.
Broken Hearts! God is Joy.

Homeless hearts! homeless hearts! through the dreary, dreary years,
Ye are lonely, lonely wand'rers, and your way is wet with tears;
In bright or blight places, wheresoever you may roam,
Ye look away from earth-land, and ye murmur, "Where is Home?"
Homeless Hearts! God is Home.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR—HOW "ROMEO" MURDERED HIS KEEPER.

The telegraph has announced the killing of Mr. W. S. Williams, the keeper of the famous elephant Romeo. The Philadelphia papers give the particulars of the horrible affair, which occurred at Hathborough, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania. It appears that the huge monster had been placed in winter quarters at the above place, and on Wednesday was visited by his keeper, who found it necessary to administer a punishment. Mr. Williams is said to be the only man living that could exercise any authority over him. He afterwards took "Romeo," to a trough, for the purpose of washing his face and tusks. As he (Williams) was stooping with his back towards him, "Romeo" suddenly seized him with his trunk, and dashed him with great violence against the wall, after which he gored him fearfully with his tusks. He then kneeled on the prostrate man with his ponderous weight, and crushed him fearfully. The screams of Mr. Williams brought persons to his assistance, and with considerable danger the mutilated body of the unfortunate man was dragged out, the elephant being kept at bay by means of pitchforks. Medical aid was at once summoned, and Mr. Williams expired in a little over an hour afterward. The elephant has since been quiet.

Romeo is a native of Ceylon, where he was captured some ten years ago, when he was considered full-grown. He for a number of years, was used in State processions and for warlike purposes. He, at last was taken among munitions of war, and sold to some London menagerie proprietors, who vainly essayed to train him to perform tricks. So he was sent to America in 1859 and purchased for the establishment of Mabie & Co.

AN AWFUL TRAGEDY.

On Sunday, Dec. 8th, very early in the morning, an act was perpetrated, on the road leading from Courtland to Tuscaloosa, at the house of Dr. DeGraffenreid, about thirty miles from Courtland, by which Dr. DeGraffenreid, Mr. Noah, and Mrs. Noah lost their lives. The Tuscumbia (Ala.) Times says:

"A Mr. Briggs, a Methodist preacher, who had been at one time confined in the Lunatic Asylum at Tuscaloosa, was staying at Dr. DeGraffenreid's. Early that morning the Dr. and Mr. Briggs were sitting by the fire, and Mr. Briggs was abusing his wife, from whom he had been separated, when Dr. G. told him he ought not to abuse his wife so; whereupon Briggs picked up a half-made axe handle and struck the Dr. on the head, felling him to the floor. He then struck him again, killing him instantly.

Mr. Noah, who is an old man, rushed in to help the Doctor and he was immediately killed with the same weapon. Mrs. Noah hearing the noise, went into the room and Briggs killed her in the same manner. A little boy, who was in the room, saved his life by getting under the bed. He says that after Briggs had killed all these, he went around and struck each of them one heavy blow on the head. After he had satisfied himself that they were dead he took a pair of shoes belonging to Mr. Noah and left the house in his stocking feet, making his way across the field. He has since been seen at Millville."

W. H. CROW,
MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT
OF THE
ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
FOR THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

HAS PAID ANOTHER LOSS IN THIS DEPARTMENT ON THE 7TH NOV., 1867, to the widow of the late Castine Doscher, of Wilmington, N. C. Policy No. 28,626, for $5,000. This Company has done more in the last two years for the citizens of the State than any other Company.

DIED IN 1866 AND 1867, AND POLICIES PAID AT THE OFFICE IN RALEIGH:

Justice Kinsey, of Raleigh,	$ 5,000
J. E. Weeks, Elizabeth City,	5,000
T. J. Garner, Weldon,	3,000
S. B. Turnage, Kinston,	10,000
J. F. Sanders, Smithfield,	5,000
Castine Doscher, Wilmington,	5,000

A very serious question for a Husband and Father to ask himself, is, Should I be taken away to-morrow, would my family be provided for as I wish them to be? The Ætna Company is one of the solid institutions of this country and by taking a Policy here you provide a certainty. That which has made this Company such a favorite and so popular, is the low rate and prompt payment of all demands.
